PREFACE

This book has been compiled to furnish a record of part of the Glick family. It is about the descendants of Johannas and Magdalena Glick who came to America on October 23, 1754 from Hanau, Germany. They came on the ship Snow Good Intent from Amsterdam.

"Genealogy of the Glick Family," 1918, Indianapolis, Indiana, by George Hewey Glick (1852-1932) furnished much of the early ancestry. His book was reprinted in 1981 with some corrections and additional material by Gladys Glick Guthrie at Hanover, Indiana.

At the time of reprinting it was apparent that more updating of records of descendants was desirable in order that these people might be identified in the family and that members of the family might understand their relationships more easily. This compilation carries records into 1982. At some later date further updating is indicated. Toward this, present day Glicks and relatives are encouraged to keep records that could be useful.

Family records, recollections, letters, certificates, photographs, and even a tintype have been invaluable as well as extremely interesting. (One realizes the need to make identifications and dates before these are forgotten.) Present day correspondence has located and brought many of these materials together and has established a bond between long-unheard-from or never-met relatives. Some have contributed their findings or verifications from checking various public records, church records, cemetery visitations, and places where the Glick families have lived. All the materials offered are appreciated and valued. It is impossible to include all the interesting details and pictures which one would like to use. Credits for information are not intended to overlook anyone of the many who has had a part in this work, even those not specifically cited. This is a family effort for the family.

Some of the names, dates and other details will differ from G. H. Glick's 1918 publication and the 1981 reprinting. Wordings and placement of materials in his book sometimes left meanings unclear. At points, possibly, he did some educated guessing or assuming which was often accepted later as positively identified material. Checking or rechecking of old records, matching records from different sources and using sources which he had not located or had not used, account for some of the differences. As with many families there is naming for relatives, intermarriage of families of German descent and remarriage after the death of a spouse which result in a confusion of name duplication. Another result is that some of the family can trace their ancestry back to Johannas through more than one line with an entanglement of relationships of various degrees.

The records of the descendants of Johannas and Magdalena are not complete even now. Johannas' will and G. H. Glick's assumptions of grave identification indicate that a son David was deceased.

Baptismal and death records show that son Henry left no living descendants. Son Frederick's line is not traced in 1918 or in this compilation. Any daughters there may have been were not identified or noted.

Correspondence with seemingly unrelated Glicks has not been included in this book, but such should not be discarded. They may be identified later as relatives or as related to descendants of Glick immigrants other than Johannas and Magdalena who are engaged in tracing their ancestry.

The 1918 book described the background for the exodus of great numbers of people, the Palatines, from Germany to America. Among them were Johannas and his wife and their young children. They arrived at Philadelphia to register and take the oath of allegiance before eventually settling in Berks County, Pennsylvania. Other children were born to them before their deaths in Pennsylvania.

George remained in Pennsylvania, although his widow and several descendants moved farther into the new country. Johann Daniel went to Fairfield County, Ohio to enter government land in 1801 or 1802. Shortly after, he brought his family and urged his brothers Philip and Peter to come also. Philip died (1806) at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania on his way to bring his family. His widow and some of the family came with Peter when he brought his family. Daniel walked to the Pennsylvania line to meet relatives and was hauled back on a sled, never recovering, dying in 1806. Peter was ill on arrival in Ohio with his family and died in 1807. The migration continued through later generations into Indiana, Illinois and other places.

Stories and incidents reflect the roles of families and individuals in the making of our country's history with their everyday lives:

Johannas' will shows concern for Magdalena and how his sons are to provide supplies and services deemed appropriate at that time; mention of close ties with a church wherever the family was shows the importance of church in their lives; when a wife died a husband sometimes married her sister or other relative--when parents died the six or seven orphans were taken into the homes or care of various relatives, demonstrating the family feelings and responsibility; a move from Pennsylvania to Ohio was in schooner wagons while another from Ohio to Illinois was by train with money for the purchased, but yet unseen, farm sewn into the hem of the mother's dress; a bride during the Civil War sent good reports of her new home which caused her brother to move his family there also, again noting how the family encouraged its members.

Special thanks are due to Clyde E. Glick, brother of Gladys Glick Guthrie, for the use of his copy of G. H. Glick's book during the 1981 reprint and this work.

Cross references on the these families were studied and checked by Sarah M. (Mrs. Victor) Glick and Gladys Glick Guthrie, Victor and Gladys being first cousins descended from Philip, Daniel and Peter. Sarah has kept updates from the Glick Family Reunion at Shelbyville, Illinois and with Gladys has brought up-to-date two short lines of Philip's family. These had lived on farms adjacent to their grandfather's farm. They did the same for another of Philip's which attended the reunions.

George. Much information was supplied by Violet (Mrs. W. W.) Wells of Walla Walla, Washington. Her research supplied the names of Johannas and Magdalena's parents and grandparents at Lohrhaupten Parish, Hanau, Hessen-Nassau Germany.

Philip. The grandchildren of Sarah Glick Doner and of Edmond Glick were researched by Vonnie Horsman of Shelbyville, Illinois and Lulu Horsman, Visalia, California. Children of Vivien T. Glick by Robert Glick, Torrence, California. The Rufus Glick family of Hope, Indiana by Gladys (Mrs. John Perry) Simmons and June (Mrs. Walter) Miller, Columbus, Indiana.

Daniel, from the first son, Solomon--Information was gathered by Lloyd Henry Glick, Columbus, Indiana.

From the Second son, Daniel, and his first wife, Catherine--Sarah M. (Mrs. Victor) Glick, Tower Hill, Illinois; Gladys Glick (Mrs. Ned Guthrie, Hanover, Indiana; Mrs. Jane (Dr. Steve) Pollis, Warren, Ohio.

From Adam, son of Daniel and his second wife, Eve--Ada (Mrs. Mitchell) Glick, Edinburgh, Indiana, and Sylvanus by John C. Glick of Columbus, Indiana.

Peter. Leah Eisaman (Mrs. Charles) Packard, Malinta, Ohio; Gerald Moore, Deshler, Ohio. Loretta Glick Zwayer family--Ernestine (Mrs. Charles) Weisschadel, Mineral Springs, Arkansas. (Ernestine furnished much in cemetery records, old baptismal records, and traveling to Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Illinois to check previous records.)

Among those whom we wish to thank are Hanover College and its President John E. Horner, for use of equipment to produce the book; Jerry Brawner, Manager of the Mail Room, for printing, binding, and assembling; Walter Morrill, Director of Libraries, for making the stencils; Dianne (Mrs. Frank) Barnes, secretary to the Director of the Brown Campus Center, for the typing; Frank S. Baker, Prof. Emeritus of journalism, for his time and invaluable help with the pictures, arrangement of materials, technical advice, and co-ordinating the final processes.

In the 1981 Genealogy of the Glick Family the identification of the full page picture following pages 134-135 is in error. The correct identification may be found in this book on p. 49.

EXPLANATION OF THE CODE TO LOCATE YOUR FAMILY

The letter A denotes the seven sons of Johannes and Magdalena Glick, the Roman numeral showing the order of their birth: AI John George, AII Philip, AIII David, AIV Henry, AV Johan Daniel, AVI Frederick, and AVII Peter.

B in front of a name, refers to children of the above, another generation. The numeral indicates the number of children in each family, in the order of their birth.

C designates children of the B generation, with the numerals again showing the size of the family.

Each generation will be noted with a new letter.

As with an outline, a lot of space (or pages) may be required for the larger families or ones with many succeeding generations. Therefore, the rest of the brothers and sisters of the C generation, for example, may not appear until several pages later.

It will be necessary to pay close attention to the letters and numerals to follow your branch from the original seven brothers.

Most persons are listed separately with the appropriate letters and numerals. Their names will be followed by known information of birth, death, burial, spouse's name and dates, marriage date, and their children's first names. Occasionally occupations and addresses are included. The children's names are underlined in many of the older generations for easier reference.

In cases of 2nd and 3rd spouses, the name is listed again with the same letter and numeral, after the children of the previous marriage. Information on the new spouse and subsequent children will then appear.

In following a line of Glicks, Eisamans, or Zwayers, the Glick name is not added each time when it is obvious the name is Glick. When a girl marries, her married name is repeated.

When you locate your immediate family, write the page number in the front for quick reference, as there are over 500 living families listed and no easy index.

George H. Glick gave us our early information in his 1918 publication. Sarah M. Glick made an outline from it and we have added later generations from close relatives. This book includes only a small portion of Glicks, compared to all who carry the Glick name.

Some families are from two lines and could be listed twice, so you may be referred to the other line. Examples are Ada Newby under Enos Peter or Adam; Isaac Sylvester and Juliann under Lewis and Mary Swander or under "Pony" Jacob; Ora and Charles under Isaac Sylvester or under "Pony" Jacob's David; Elmer Glen and Juanita under Lewis and Jane Springstun or under Edmond's Arthur; Levi E. Zwayer under AII Anna Magdalena Hall or under Loretta Zwayer.

Any additions or corrections you may wish to make can be done on the blank side opposite. (on the back of the preceding page).

 Several times the Glucks and Schwanders have intermarried; thus the Swander History by John Swander, D.D., 1899, of Tiffin, Ohio. Near Howenstein, Switzerland, lived the Schwanders with 10 sons. Frederick emigrated from Berne, Switzerland to Philadelphia in 1732. Frederick's eighty years old father and one hundred four year old grandfather walked six miles to see him embark.
 Later Frederick moved to where Allentown, Pa. now stands and married. He sired two sons, Jacob and John Adam. John Adam died without children so all descendants in this country are from Jacob.

In 1775 Jacob married Barbara Guester or Gerster and was in the Revolutionary War; then the name changed to Swander.

John was born 19 June 1776 to Jacob and Barbara and married Elizabeth Glick, daughter of AII, Philip in 1800. They had twelve children; all except John I. Swander family came to Ohio with their Glick neighbors.

The third son of ~~John~~ and ~~Elizabeth~~ Swander was Frederick, named for his grandfather and married Eve "Polly" Glick another daughter of AII Philip.

Eve and Frederick's Mary was born 1816 and a son Daniel in 1818. At eighteen years Mary married Lewis Glick, 1st son of Johan Daniel and their children were Isaac Sylvester, Sarah (Miller), Hannah (Solt), Elizabeth (Fridley) and Levi J. who bled to death at twenty-two years and Lewis born six months after his father died in 1847. So Mary brought up six children.

Mary's great granddaughter Mabel Glick married her brother Daniel's great grandson Huber Johnston, Dec. 25, 1929. They lived in Decatur, Ill.

Catherine and Anna Swander were probably two of John and Elizabeth's twelve children. Catherine married John Glick, son of AI and Margaret Herr. Anna b 1802 married Benjamin Glick, son of AVII Peter.

Daniel (brother of Mary), 1st wife was Abolonia Hoyman who maybe was a sister of Elizabeth Hoyman who married AVII Peter's 4th son "Pony" Jacob.

"Pony" Jacob and Elizabeth died 1840 and 1842 leaving Joseph, David, Eliza and Noah(twins), Juliann and Sarah Ann(twins), and Loretta.

Daniel and Abolonia cared for Juliann and Benjamin and Anna Swander cared for Loretta.

Last of Philip's AII Family.

AIII David Glick

From the 1918 publication I am assuming David was born in Germany and came with his brothers John George b 1749 and Philip b 1750 to Philadelphia. Apparently David died young and his parents were buried beside him in the Wessnerville Cemetery at the Freiden Church built in 1768. Johannes died 1783 and Magdalena 1790.

- AIV Henry Glick, b 15 Dec 1755 d 19 Dec 1804, m Eva Catherine Strauser, b 20 Dec 1756 d 20 Sept 1819. Both are buried in the Wessnerville Cemetery.

From Baptism records from the Jerusalem Church records there were children Anna Magdalena, Margaretha and maybe Daniel and Frederick, none of whom survived.

Henry was a private in George Capenbargers Co. 1st Battalion, Northhampton County Militia under Col. Henry Giger and received two months pay 1778. He was on the tax list of Albany Twp. from 1787 to 1801.

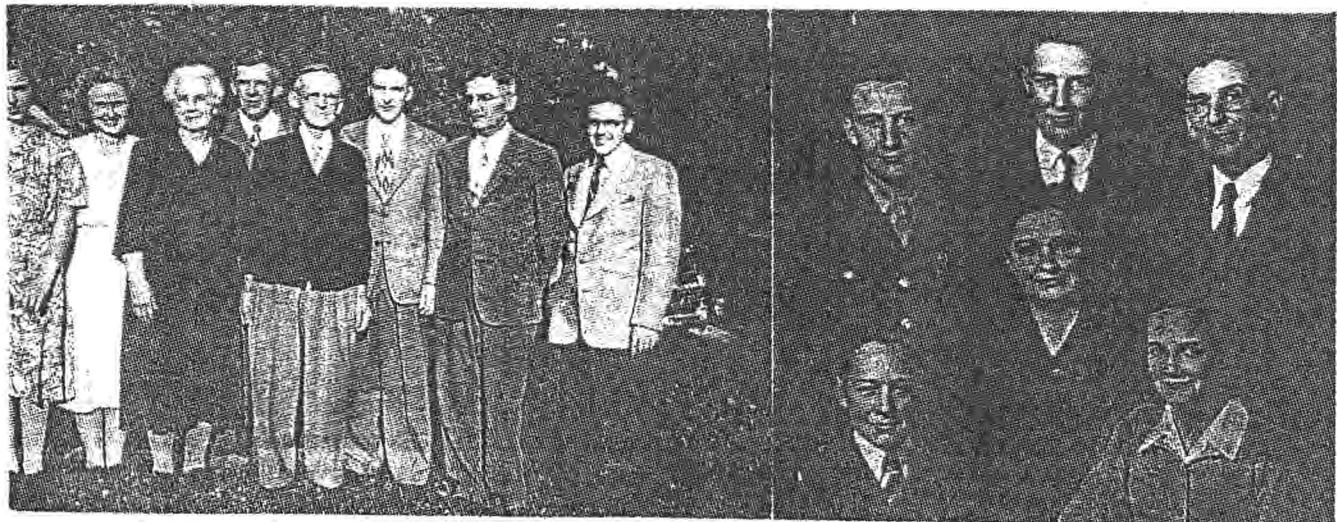

- AV Johann Daniel Gluck, baptized July 11, 1758 at 4 weeks by Rev. Daniel Schumacker in Evangelical Lutheran Church, Allemanel, Pa. Witnesses Johannes and Anna Magdalena Gluck. Sponsored by Maria and Elizabeth Mindelsin. Daniel came to Fair Co., O. 1801 or 1802 for government land claim. In 1803 or 1804 he brought his family and Mary, dau of AVII and husband John Ritter.

AV Daniel Gluck

I find there is a difference in the birth date of Daniel in the 1918 publication, page 57, if his name was Albrecht Daniel born 1752. I think David may have been born in Germany 1752 and died young in Pa and his parents buried beside him (page 34 in the 1918 Book).

A more reliable birth record of Johannes and Magdalena's three younger children are the baptism records of Rev. Daniel Schumacker's in the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Alleman, Pa. Johan Daniel Gluck baptized July 11, 1758 at four weeks old. Witnessed by Johannes and Magdalena Gluck and sponsored by Maria and Elizabeth Mindelsin, both single. Same place George Frederick baptized Nov. 11, 1760, born four weeks before at Alleman.

And Johan Peter born Jan 2, 1768 baptized Jan 27, 1768 at home in Alleman.

Now, a little summary of the Daniel Glicks before listing Daniel Jr.

Johan Daniel b 1758 d 1806 married Christine Babarine probably a daughter of Philip's Susannah.

Their children: Catherine b 1784, Jacob b 1787, d infant, Solomon b 1788, Daniel Jr. b 1790 d 1869, Sarah b 1792, Benjamin b 1793.

The family moved to Fairfield Co. O. (a forest) in 1803 or 1804. Later Johan Daniel walked to the Pa. state line to meet relatives, was hauled back on a sled and was the first to be buried in the Glick or Salem churchyard about 1806 (page 29, 1918 Book).

Daniel Jr. b 1790 d 1869 married Catherine Solt. Their children were Lewis b 1815 d 1847 married Mary Swander, Isaac b 1817 married Levina Boyer, Daniel b 1820 died young. Then wife Catherine died so Daniel Jr. went back to Pa. and married the younger sister Eve Solt (page 68, 1918 book). Their five children were: Betsy b 1825, Amanda b 1827, Levina b 1830, Adam b 1839, Sylvanus b 1842.

In 1846 Daniel Jr. and Eve moved to Bath, Co. Ind. with all the children except Lewis by Catherine, who already had a family of his own.

They came from Canal Winchester, O. to Pana, Ill. by train. Wagons, furniture and animals were in a box car. There was no drinking water so the younger children cried themselves to sleep. They walked a mile or two between stations at Indianapolis carrying their food for the trip which took two days, Mar. 15-17, 1870. Juliann had $1000 sewed in the hem of her dress to pay for the 80A bought sight unseen. The roads were nearly axle deep with mud so the horses were exhausted then people loaned their horses. The six children were 4 months to 12 years old. ch Orlando, George, Levi, Luella, Charles, William and Ora b 1874

Early children had many responsible chores. The Isaac Sylvester farm had a small spring along the road (and is still active) where butter and milk were kept cool between meals.

Will remembered his mother asked him to bring cookies from the cellar when the preacher came for Sunday dinner. Will replied "There are none." because he had eaten them, which his mother had discovered. He also remembered being covered with snow when he awoke to climb the ladder downstairs.

Isaac and Juliann celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary 1907 which was unusual in those days. A basket dinner was followed by a religious service in the grove attended by community friends and Ohio relatives. A family picture was taken and 2 of the crowd. A gold headed cane with name and date was presented to the parents. Johnny Glick and Huber Johnston remember an incident that day. They were jumping from the barn loft when Huber landed in a cow pile. Johnny washed him up from the horse trough.

 Charles Walter replanted 16 A of corn with a corn jabber in a day, received a scratch which developed into blood poison and died Aug 1895 when Irl was 5 years and Walter 3 years. Walter Sr. was quite sick and living in the small converted school house at the foot of the hill. Irl was at grandfather's when Walter asked for Irl. Irl was stood beside his father's bed. Irl remembers his father putting his hand on his head and saying "God bless you, Little Man," turned over and died.
 Irl also remembers playing in the attic space under the roof at grandfather's and accidentally stepping into a large jar of maple syrup. Grandma washed him up and grandfather spanked him. Next morn, mother, Irl and Walter were at grandpa's to pick cherries. Grandpa tried to talk with Irl but Irl remembered the spanking and tried to spit in his face.

- F6 Ross Sylvester Glick b 7 Nov 1905, farmer, Tower Hill, Ill. This story about Ross as I remember it and from a paper clipping at the time.

After lunch Saturday March 21, 1908, when Ross Glick was less than two and one half yrs he started to follow his father Charles Glick to Tower Hill four miles north. At the turn in the road apparently Ross went in the opposite direction on a less travelled road, then continued through the woods and underbrush.

My family also went to Tower Hill for a family picture, which was made and we hurried home when we heard Ross was missing. My father didn't change his good clothes but jumped on a horse for the all night search with neighbors. By morning they decided to drag Simmons' big pond and ordered blood hounds from Decatur fifty miles north.

By 9:00 a.m. Sunday morning Civil War veteran George Payne, an uncle of Mrs. Orlando Glick, found Ross tangled in his wire hog pen across from New Hope Church.

Payne hadn't heard of Ross being lost so carried him west to neighbor Sparr's who had children.

George Payne carried Ross through the woods nearly a mile when Ross exclaimed "Papa's Barn" but he was unable to tell a thing about his adventure. He only remembers there were lots of people around and he had eggs for breakfast. His clothes were torn and muddy and evidence he had spent time in the hog pen with the warmth of the hogs as it was a cold night though he suffered no ill effects.

Very few people had telephones in that area though Ross' parents and grandparents Isaac and Juliann had phones which I remember were often used that night.

left an orphan at ten years. Don't know who he lived with until married, but was an apprentice blacksmith to Cozzam Zwayer and wife Catherine Glick before Cozzam moved to Barth Co. Ind. in 1850. Cozzam was probably a brother to Ben Zwayer who married Noah's sister Loretta in 1857. After forty-six years the six children had a reunion on December 14, 1900 at Eliza Elizabeth Eisaman's for a family picture. Juliann came from Lakewood, Ill. and Noah from Canal Winchester for several weeks to Malinta, O. where the others lived.

D1 Isaac Monroe b 17 Mar 1857 d 1938. Taught school May 1880 for $18 a month, one mile east of Malinta where a road had been laid out through The Big Black Swamp area. Pupils were few but boots were more scarce so he taught barefoot. We may think Daylight Saving Time is new but the school board permitted Isaac to begin school an hour early, so he was able to split one hundred fence rails after school for one cent each. He boarded with his widowed aunt Eliza Eisaman for one dollar a week to be paid in work. Love may have an incentive as he married the next July, 1881. m Anna Eliza Dauber b 1858 d 1935, m on 26 July 1881. Celebrated 50th Anniv 1931. ch Lester, Cecil, Bonnie, Dora Deen d infant.

Sarah Ann and Juliann were the second set of twins born to "Pony" Jacob and Elizabeth Hoyman and left orphans at 8 yrs. I don't know who Sarah Ann lived with as a child but lived with younger sister Loretta after Loretta married. She died at Loretta's and was buried at Hoy Cemetery but there is no marker. Sarah Ann didn't marry.
Juliann lived with Dan Swander and wife Abolonia Hoyman, maybe a sister of her mother. After Abolonia died Juliann lived with Tenna Smith Blackwood until she married Isaac Sylvester Glick. They moved to Lakewood, Ill. with their six children March 17, 1870.
Details of their family come under Daniel, Jr. and 1st wife Catherine Solt.

COPY OF JOHANNES GLUCK'S WILL ON FILE AT READING, PA. COURTHOUSE.
ORIGINAL IS IN GERMAN.

In the name of God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost. Amen.

I, John Gluck, in Albany Township, Berks County in the State of Pennsylvania, am very sick and weak in my body, but yet of a sound understanding, Thanks be to God, who hath given it me in mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die. Make and ordain this my last will and testament, that is to say. Especially and first of all I give and recommend my soul into the Hands of Almighty God who gave the same and my body I recommend to be buried in the Earth in a decent and Christian like manner, Agreeable to the good opinion of the Executors. Nothing doubting but the general resurrection I shall receive the same again, through the mighty power of God and as (touching)(sic) such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleases God to (cleft)(sic) me in this life. I give, bequeath and sign over of the same in manner following.

In the first place, shall after my decease, all my personal estate, be set down in a neat inventory and in a usual manner be brought in through my Executors, and then shall my loving wife, Magdalena have the Plantation on which I at present live for her use and benefit as long as she lives. With all other my personal estate which I have not through this present writing bequeathed to my children, for her use, as long as she lives, yet upon this condition, that after her death, or if she be inclined to give over (said?) plantation before her decease, two of my youngest sons the said plantation till to a line here between said plantation and my other plantation on which my son Daniel Gluck lives which line runs down the round hill accept the acre towards the spring and my son Daniel must fall back with the line on the spring slanting up until to the fence; that the water is not kept up or hindered from those living on my place. Also shall the said plantation be given over unto my (here is an insertion that I cannot make out) two youngest sons and shall one like the other have an equal right and claiming thereof to the single and only use of my two youngest sons, who shall take possession of said plantation, their heirs and assigns for ever. And which of said two youngest sons should first intermarry shall build himself a house on said place between the roads opposite to George (Hostlers) place and my wife Anna Magdalena shall with one of my eldest sons divide the place to the two youngest sons according to their good opinion and marking the line immediately and my wife Magdalena shall have the right to live in the old house or in the new one, as also in the house of Daniel Gluck's in which she chooses the best as long as she lives and the two youngest sons shall be true and upright to their mother in all justifiable things till to their age of twenty-one years. Further shall all my sons have when they intermarry, for a house gift, one horse, one cow, and two sheep of my own, for his own property and that my wife Magdalena has the right to inclose in which said house she will, her lumber, victuals and drinks; in which house she lives in (where)

Where she will and to put the Cattle and (fother)(sic) where she pleases -

Secondly, I give and bequeath to my son Daniel Gluck my other plantation aforementioned on which he now lives, which adjoining to the first mentioned plantation and the afore named division line and as the same is further run out. Situate in Albany Township together with all the buildings, improvements right and property heir rights and conveyances and what also belonging thereto; to him the said Daniel Gluck, his heirs and assigns for ever. Yet with this exception that if the said plantation fall back to again to my sons yet living to their (and heris) own property. Upon this condition that they shall pay to the remaining daughter of said Daniel Gluck one hundred pounds, lawful money in Pennsylvania. If he leaves no daughters, so shall the said one hundred pounds be equally divided in equal shares among all my then living sons. Thirdly, I give and bequeath to my son Henry Gluck, my plantation lying in said Township, part of the Proprietary Mannor land, together with all my right and property what I have to claim thereon. To the benefit of said Henry Gluck, his heirs and assigns for ever. But if he should die without manly heirs, so shall the last mentioned plantation fall back again to my then living sons--to them as heirs and to their own property--yet upon this condition that they shall pay to the remaining daughters of said Henry Gluck one hundred pounds lawful money of Pennslyvania. If he leaves no daughters so shall the last mentioned one hundred pounds be divided in equal shares among my then living sons and also shall it be kept with my two youngest sons, with the first of all mentioned plantation after my wife Magdalena giving over the same or at her decease the same as is mentioned here-tofore to be kept with Daniel and Henry Gluck in the second of their article and then shall each of my son's wives, if it should please God to put them into a widow situation, so shall they have full right to continue in farm one or the other of said plantations with the children. (But no without heirs) until the children are of age. But as a widow when such one should intermarry so she shall not remain on the place or on the plantation. Fourthly, shall my two sons namely Daniel and Henry Gluck help my two youngest sons namely Frederick and Peter Gluck on the first mentioned plantation to make for my wife Magdalena, the first and second crop grass at proper time--now--dry and to help take it to the usual place. Also to haul the dung in the garden and on the fields, where she thinks fit to have the same. The garden they shall also till and plant with one another and in case she being too weak to fother her cattle, so shall they also do the same for her, and take the milk from the cows and bring the same clean to its proper place; they, the aforementioned brothers shall also be obligated to attend and wait on their mother, as my aforementioned wife, Magdalena, in time of sickness and when she comes to be kept close in bed--usually and uprightly so as becommeth a right Christian. And to my wife, Magdalena her maintenance, shall each of my two sons named Daniel and Henry Gluck give her yearly and every year as long as she lives, 10 bushels of rye and 5 bushels of wheat and 3 bushels of buckwheat, as also one hundred pounds of fatt pork and also each of the two aforementioned thirty weight of beef, when one of them kills, but all taken thereto must be good and fit foresale, the grain they must haul to the mill and deliver the meal to her dwelling place. Each of them shall also give and deliver to her yearly and every year one peck of salt, a quarter pound of pepper, a pound of all spice, 50 good eggs and each of them six yards of flower linen and two yeards of teo linen shall give her yearly and every year as long as she lives (I expect?) the half of the cabbage garden on my son Daniel Gluck's place for my wife Magdalena, but my (can't read) and plant the same and then my has half of the vegetables and that as long as she lives, and Henry Gluck must vie to my wife Magdalena yearly 50 head of cabbage and also shall each of the two give to my wife Magdalena every year, six bushels of potatoes and as many turnips if they plant any. And Daniel Gluck must make as many shoes from his leather for my wife as she wants and each of the aforesaid brothers shall give his mother yearly 2 quarts of oyl; and each of them a half bushel of Indian Corn. So shall each of the aforesaid two sons Henry and Daniel Gluck pay to my wife Magdalena every year as long as she lives 4 pounds of lawful money and not let my wife want in fire wood, haul the same to her dwelling place, cut small the same to fit for the fire and when my wife Magdalena will ride to church or elsewhere so shall the said 2 sons give her a horse at all times without hinderance. I also expect for my wife on my son Daniel Gluck's place every year the fruite in the orchard on the foremost hill being inside or outside the fence, but my Daniel must keep her in good fence, without doing any damage to her. She has also liberty to gather apples on said place for her to eat which she chooses and that as long as she lives. The aforesaid two brothers, Henry and Daniel Gluck must make her the cider and put it in the cellar where she will have it and each of them must fother her a cow as well as his own cattle and that so will summer and winter and let them feed with their own cattle in the meadows and fields and each of the two shall also fother for her two sheep as their own and on the plantation where she lives they shall help her to keep the fence in good order as long as she keeps the place in her hands and shall dung and plant and till her a garden as much land as she chooses for benefit and to my son Philip I give and bequeath all my smith tools for his own property to him his heirs and assigns but with this exception that it shall be kept the same as with the afore-mentioned improvements, that if he is without manly heirs it shall fall back to my other living sons, but all smith work my wife Magdalena shall want done, Philip Gluck shall do it for her gratis. She finding the iron and as long as my wife Magdalena has the first mentioned place in possession and has together the horses and horned cattle, shall have the right to put the cattle to feed on the manner land as also on Daniel Gluck's land without any hinderance and in case the mother has my said plantation in possession and will have her yearly maintainance (charge?) so it is here put stedfast that the herein named children named Henry and Daniel Gluck be obligated to give her her things every year and if it should please the Lord Commander of Life and Death to take from this work my loving wife Magdalena so shall they have her buried in a Christian and honest manner. I, John Gluck order and command that my wife Magdalena shall keep in pledge all right and property of the three mentioned plantations so that she receive her maintenance truly and I, John Gluck make and order my said wife Magdalena and my two eldest sons named George and Philip Gluck to the only Executors of this my last will and testament making now and recall all wills and testaments and bequests through me heretofore made but acknowledging this and no other to be my last will and testament, Intestimony where of I having put hereto my own hand and seal the 14th day of November in the year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty.

A SUPPLEMENT to "JOHANNES AND MAGDALENA GLICK 1982" (1749-1982)
Compiled by Sarah M. Glick + Gladys Glick Gutierrez 1982 No. 304

After copying George H. Glick's 1918 Genealogy of the Glick Family and compiling the 1982 book, many letters were received. Some were inquiries, others were updates of various lines for which nothing was available at the time of writing. Some were corrections while others suggested that some older materials might not be accurate. Some of the latter cannot be proved or disproved at this time. Some of the letters helped fit together items which seemed to be disjointed or not to belong to our family. Additional older materials were especially exciting to receive. The response has been interesting and helpful.

While it is not feasible to rewrite the 1982 book, some corrections need to be made, and some of the now available information or its sources need to be shared. The letter-number symbols of the 1982 book along with page numbers as well as some 1918 page numbers will show where corrections and additions belong. An attempt to give sources with their addresses may serve as a means of more direct exchange for those of closer interest or relation, when there is more than will be given in these pages. Letters and materials are still welcome and appreciated.

The Swander History, John I. Swander 1899, referred to page 1, gives a rather complete list of descendants and dates to that time. Many interrelations with the Glick family appear. (Mrs. Henry "Delores" Nash, 1901 N. 83rd St., Wauwatosa, WI 53213). Some corrections on the Swanders: page 2, line 5, omit "I" in John Swander; page 2, line 6 should read "third son of Jacob and Barbara" rather than John and Elizabeth; page 2, line 18, Catharine and Anna . . . omit were probably two of John and Elizabeth's twelve children . . . insert Catherine, daughter of Jacob and Barbara Swander, b April 4, 1784 m John Glick on Feb. 12, 1803; Anna Mariah, first child of Frederick and Eva Glick Swander, b 1802 or June 5, 1803, m Benjamine Glick Dec. 10, 1821. (Both are in the book).

Philip Glick's wife was probably Susannah Baber or Bieber (the "ine" of Barberine meaning single female). (Mrs. Henry F. (Roberta) Cook, 6846 Alcoma Dr., Pittsburgh, PA 15235). Reprints of George Washington Glick's writing in 1906 list her as Susanna Backer. "Elizabeth and Maria, no more record" see page 2 and Philip's Land Transaction.

Peter m (Anna) Maria(h) Barbara Schumacher (Shumaker). After Peter's death she m a Kurtz. Mariah Barbara was the daughter of Rev. Daniel Schumacher who had baptized Peter and two of his brothers. "History of Frieden's Lutheran Church, Stony Run, PA.
 200th Anniversary, 1770-1970" gives material on this family as well as the people and conditions in the area.

Daniel Schumacher cam to Pennsylvania in 1754 and was assigned to the "Red" Jerusalem Church and other churches or groups in Allemanel. This term indicated the German heritage of the people and also signified "destitution" or great need. Letters checking on his recommendations and credentials show that he had not studied or prepared for ordination at German universities, that he had married and been divorced in Halifax, Nova Scotia where he had come from Germany and then gone to New York. He was charged with swearing, lying and drunkenness by Muhlenberg, the Lutheran leader. He denied none of these, explaining that he had married under the influence of alcohol and that she was too homely to live with afterwards. By the time these things had come to light he had endeared himself to his people with his faithful, caring ministry to their spiritual needs and situation, with his traveling outreach to others in the area, with setting up church records, making the beautiful Fraktur certificates for many of the numerous marriages and baptisms he had performed. He was expelled from his church, but some 2/3 of the congregation left to form another to which he went (the "White" Friedin's church).

C1 Joseph T. Glick: the only Joseph Glick from Ohio in Civil War enlisted 22 Nov 1861 for 3 years at Camp Vance, Findley, O with 57th Ohio Inf at 19 years of age. He reenlisted 1-1-1864 for 3 years, overrating leave in March 1864. Deserted June 24, 1865 at Louisville, Ky. Desertion charge removed by Special Order 18 Sept 1867, again 1893. His Co mustered out 14 Aug 1865 at Little Rock Arkansas. At enlistment was a farmer, 5'7" tall, brown eyes, light hair, light complexion. It appears that Joseph may have been the child born to Elizabeth Hoymann Glick and James Bradley, at which time she died, 26 Nov 1842. If the parents were married perhaps he took the Glick name being reared by those relatives (?) as were several of the others. It appears that he died or disappeared while not on duty "in the war".

THE BROBST HISTORY, copied June 14, 1938 by Anna Brobst Town. Gift of Mrs. Howard L. Town,

(UNDATED)

The following newspaper article was copied from an old newspaper which was loaned me by my cousin, Clara Crumley Christy, whose mother was my father's sister, ELLA BROBST CRUMLEY. The article was written by my grandfather, PETER BROBST, who was born in Berks Co., Pa., a son of JACOB and CATHARINE BROBST. When a small child, he moved with his parents from Pa. travelling in two covered wagons to settle in Bloom Twp., Fairfield Co., Ohio. The article tells of the pioneers in Fairfield and Pickaway Counties during the early days. It is titled, "THE DAYS OF THE PIONEERS IN FAIRFIELD AND PICKAWAY," by Peter BROBST, Esq. of Madison Twp., Pickaway Co.

"PETER BROBST, Esq. of Madison Twp, this county, came to Bloom Twp, Fairfield Co., near the line of Pickaway, when a small boy, grew up with the country, and is perfectly familiar with the trials and triumphs of the Pioneer settlers. In a recent interview with him, we gathered the following personal reminiscences:

"My father, JACOB BROBST, was born in Berne Twp (Jacob's own story states he was born in Troy, Albany Twp) Berks Co., Pa., March 22, 1783, and was married on the 16th day of January, 1804, to Catharine Glick, daughter of DANIEL GLICK, who was born in the same locality, Oct 2, 1783. They were the parents of eight children (JACOB's own story gives names of nine children) four of whom are now living. My father died March 24, 1830 at the age of 47, Mother surviving until April 29, 1861, in her 78th year.

"In the year 1807, Father & Mother and three children: SALLY (apparently Helmmo, daughter of Katharine and first husband, Peter, brother of Jacob), Jacob and myself, emigrated from their native heath in Berks Co., Pa. to Ohio, and located upon a tract of 160 acres of land in Bloom Twp., Fairfield Co., where the village of Marcy is now situated, part of the land now in the possession of my brother, DAVID BROBST, my maternal grandfather, DANIEL GLICK, having come out the previous year and bought the land at $2.50 per acre.. We moved into a cabin on the premises, built by a settler named MIX. It was constructed of round logs, with puncheon floor, wooden chimney, etc. Father made bedsteads of poles. Some fifteen or twenty families also removed to the same locality, from the same neighborhood in Berks Co., Pa. about the same time: The GLICKS, SWANDERS, CURTS, WOODRINGS, HALLS, NOTHSTINES, RUNKLAS, BEERYs and others, the ancestry of persons bearing those names in Fairfield, Pickaway and other counties.

"They raised a little corn, the 1st season, but no wheat as deer were too plentiful for wheat raising. As soon as wheat could be grown successfully, it was made a specialty. They at first pounded their grain into meal, on a hominy block with iron wedges, and sifted it thru a buckskin, in which holes were cut for that purpose .

"In 1813 David Wright made a corn crusher of two stones, about 18" in diameter, one fastened to a frame and the other turned by a crank, on which I helped to grind corn when a mere boy, and found it hard work. There were milles on streams, but it was not always possible to get to them, and by grinding ourselves, it saved us the toll, which was quite an item.

"About 1814, we began raising considerable wheat, and my father and my uncles, DANIEL and SOLOMON GLICK, built a flat bottom boat near Foresman's mill, near the present town of Ashville, loaded it with 300 barrels of flour and rafted it down to New Orleans. The water had to be high before they could cross the dam below Circleville. They only realized $1.05 per barrel. The next year, they shipped with DICK NOOKER, but did no better. In 1817, they secured a contract to supply the old penitentiary are Columbus, Ohio with flour and they hauled flour there for a number of years. Grandfather GLICK, at the same time, furnished the penitentiary with meat.

In 1816 Grandfather Glick built a mill on Little Walnut, on the site where the Youngs now have a flouring mill. My father also hauled wheat to Sandusky City and lower Sandusky, now Fremont, O., on sleds in Winter of 1819. We had to go to Zanesville for our salt, exchanging a four-horse load of wheat for a barrel of salt. We once took a four-horse load of wheat to Lancaster, to trade for leather and as it would not buy a whole side of sole leather, and as we had neither money nor anything else to pay the difference, the leather was cut to the amount. Our wheat was all reaped with a hook, and it was not unusual to see thirty hands together reaping.

My father was called out in the War of 1812, but was gone only a few days when it closed. My uncles, Daniel and Solomon Glick, were in the War, under General Harrison, the former as Drum Major.

We had much trouble with the wild hogs, which then abounded. When pork was needed, Father would go out and kill one, but if a vicious hog was near it was advisable to climb a tree with the greatest alacrity.

For some years we boys wore buckskin breeches and round-about, and in Winter moccasins also of buck-skins. Father was a tailor by trade, and made our clothing. He also tailored for the neighbors, charging $1.50 for making an overcoat.

Mother made frequent trips to Lancaster on horseback with chickens strung by the legs and thrown across the horse, and generally sold her load to Straub & Steinman, tavern keepers, at five cents for the chickens, five cents per pound for the butter and three cents a dozen for the eggs.

Myself and a neighbor boy, both then about fifteen years of age, had an encounter with a wild cat, near our homes. We had a dog with us, but the catamount got the best of him at first, and attacked my companion, seized him by the leg, lacerating it very badly. I hastened and procured an iron spike when our dog again came to the rescue, and we succeeded in releasing the other boy from the perilous position, and killed the animal.

When my Father built a better tenement than the rude log cabin, there were yet no saw mills near, and two men were employed to saw out the boards for the flooring, with a common cross-cut saw, called a hook-saw. A scaffold was built, the logs rolled upon it, one man standing above and the other beneath it and in this manner the boards were sawed, at 25 cents per hundred feet.

In 1825 Father and uncles drove about 900 head of hogs to Baltimore, which they bought at $1.25 and $1.50 per hundred. The hogs were swung into heavy straps and weighted with steel-yards, one at a time. They were on the road sixty days and sold the hogs in Baltimore, at $2.70 per hundred, except about one hundred head which became crippled and unable to travel, and were sold enroute. I went along as a hand and received $20.00 for the trip. It took eleven days to walk home. While in Baltimore, we ascended Washington's Monument, 300 feet. After returning from this trip, my Father's health was so impaired that he was not again able for active pursuits and necessary duties, most of which devolved upon me.

In 1828, Father bought the farm on which I now live, in Madison Twp., Pickaway Co., then comprising 160 acres, for $1500, which brother Daniel and myself paid for. At this time, I commenced furnishing flour and provisions to Heyl, Russell and Armstrong, who kept the principal taverns in Columbus, and continued to do so every two weeks, during the Winter for fifteen years, receiving $1.25 and $1.35 per hundred for flour. Columbus then had a small market house on High Street, near where is the present State House, but not much of marketing connected with it.

In 1829 I hauled to Columbus 400 bushels of wheat, which Father had contracted to me, at Sullivans at 50 cents per bushel. His mill was on the west side and the bridge across the river was made of plank laid on trestle work, with no protection on the sides. There were no bridges across the creeks in those days, and frequently when the streams were up, I ran narrow chances, several times swimming the stream.

In 1831, or 1832, I had a close escape in crossing Molly, or Big Walnut, with a load of flour drawn by five horses. There were two fords, and I nearly missed both of them as the creek was much swollen. At the time the ice got loose and came against the horses almost producing a disaster. On one trip, my younger brother David, then a boy, accompanied me. When we came to Big Walnut, it was high and David said he would not go across. The wagon had a high bed, with English sides. I got rails and placed on top of the wagon, piled the flour thereon, told my brother to get on top and look straight ahead, which he did, and we rode the swift stream in safety to the other side.

When father died in 1830 there was a debt of $1000 on the farm, which I succeeded in removing by many hard knocks. I performed various kinds of labor, making thousands of rails for 25 cents per hundred, splitting as many as 516 in one day. For ordinary work we received 25 cents per day. I helped to build probably forty or more log cabins and assisted in other buildings. Have participated in log rollings, etc. innumerable.

During eight to ten years I made one or two trips a year to Sandusky City and Lower Sandusky, now Fremont, with flour and liquor, the latter distilled from rye, of our own raising, receiving money for the articles. I generally stopped at Armstrong's Tavern, near Lower Sandusky, said to have been built by the Indians, which is still standing and now owned by Thomas Reber. On one occasion while there, at Walker's Tavern in Upper Sandusky, about 500 Indians from the Reservation came suddenly into the town. They drove a stake in the ground, placed a young Indian in kneeling position by it, and tied him to the stake. Seven Indians were then given guns, all loaded but one, and at the command of the leader, fired at the Indian, killing him instantly, a ball entering his breast. Then, taking the dead body, the entire crowd disappeared in a few moments. The young Indian, who was not more than 16 years of age, had trained an Indian boy with a tomahawk, killing him. I was an eye witness of the execution, standing not more than ten steps distant, with Walker, who was on the best friendly terms with the Indians, and had an Indian Squaw wife.

When enroute on these trips I frequently passed close by the spot where Crawford was burned by the Indians in Wyandotte Co., seven or eight miles from Upper Sandusky.

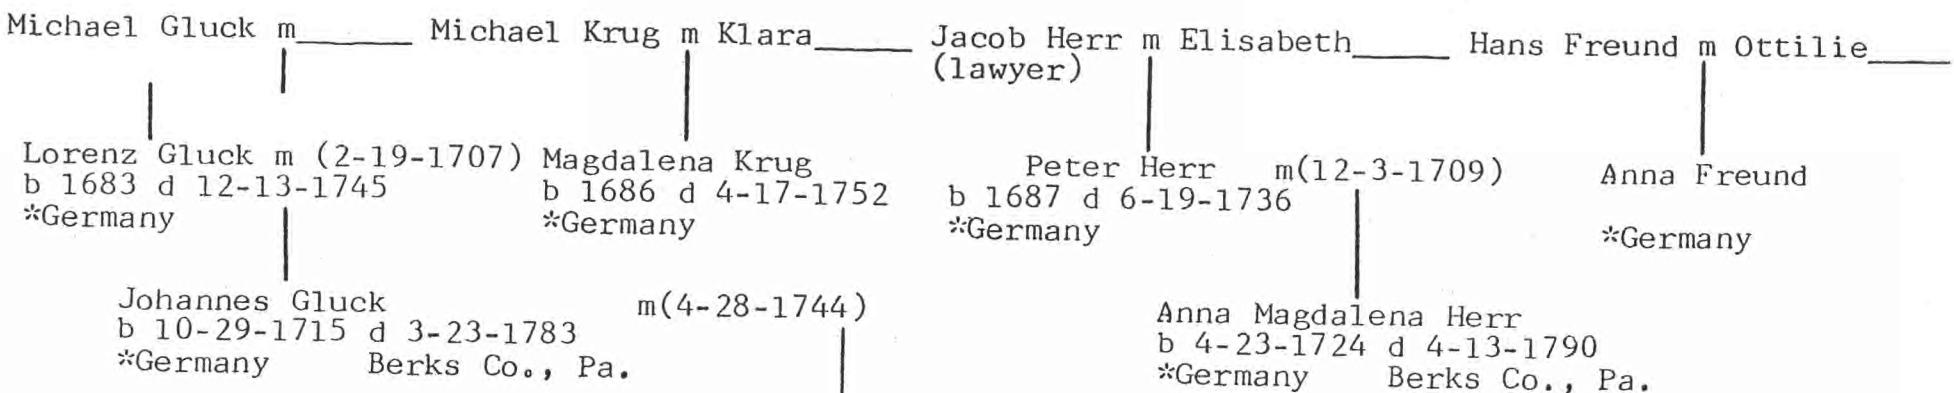

In the fall of 1882 I was at the Centennial celebration held in ~~commemoration~~ of Crawford's memory and there met four of the eldest citizens of the locality and had a discussion as to the exact place where the burning occurred, two of them agreeing with me that the burning was on the opposite side of the road from where the Monument was erected.

I had but limited educational advantages, my entire schooling only a few months at a German School. The first School House in our neighborhood was a wooden structure, built near the center of the settlement, embracing an area of about three miles square, in Pickaway Co., about one mile north of Marcy. The first schools were all German. The teacher was paid by those who sent their children, at 25 cents per scholar, never realizing more than about $8.00 per month to the teacher. About 1832 we had the first English school, near where the Glick Church now stands, in Bloom Twp., Fairfield Co.

The first church in our neighborhood was erected in 1809 by the Lutherans and built of logs, the organization then and now known as the Glick Church, and from this Society two other churches sprang, St. John's at Lithopolis, and Trinity at Marcy, all three under one pastoral charge. Our first minister, or missionary, was Rev. Foster and the succeeding pastors as follows: Roys, Hinkles, Jacob Leist, also missionaries Stake, Wagonhule, (now living at Lancaster at an advanced age) Magel, Elriah, Harter, and J. Beck, present pastor.

In 1823 I joined the Light Horse Company in Fairfield Co. mustering with it eight years, and in 1832, joined a similar military organization composed of citizens of Madison, Walnut, Washington and Saltcreek Twp., in Pick-way Co., and was a commissioned officer, in the company as follows: Second Lieutenant, Commission dated Feb 1, 1836, signed by Robert Lucas (?) Governor of Ohio; First Lieutenant, Commission dated Sept. 4, 1837, signed by Joseph Vance, Gov., Captain, Commission dated April 26, 1841, signed by Thomas Corwin, Gov.

TO: Selected Libraries (Genealogy Section)

We are enclosing Supplement No. 3 to the 1982 publication Descendants of Johannes and Magdalena Glick (1749-1982) which was sent to your library, according to our records.

Our correspondence indicates that the original publication and the two prior supplements have been used by several genealogists. We expect that this supplement will receive similar attention.

We urge you to bind the original publication and all three supplements in a single 19-hole plastic binder with colored separator pages. This cover letter should be bound inside the front cover where it can call attention to the supplements.

Supplement No. 3 contains a two page index which includes names of most of the descendants through the 5th Generation.

Should your collection not contain the 1982 publication or one or both of the previous supplements you should notify me of the identity of the missing items. We have a limited number of these items which we can send to you. The cost of the 1982 publication plus Supplements #1 & #2 is $5.00 including postage. Supplement #3 is also $5.00 including postage. If your organization is unable to pay for these items we ask that you accept them as a donation and send a letter acknowledging such a donation.

Individuals desiring a copy of the 1982 publication and/or Supplements No. 1 or No. 2 may obtain the missing items for a single charge of $5.00. Copies of Supplement No. 3 may be obtained for a mailing and printing fee of $5.00. Checks and mailing instructions should be sent to the above address.

Thank you for your attention to this letter and to your efforts in behalf of genealogists in your geographic area.

Sincerely,

Frank A. Guthrie

In 1982 I knew little of Peter Glick (b. 1768, d. 1807) [7th son of Johannes and Magdalena Glick] or his wife, Anna Maria Barbara Schumacher (b. 1767, d. 1835), generally referred to as Barbara, hereafter. This is the story of their granddaughter, Juliann Glick (b. 1834, d. 1912), my grandmother. I believe that her great grandfather was Henri Schumacher (b. 1708, Denmark, d. 1787, Berks Co., PA).

Karl Werner Klubler of Hamburg, Germany, did research for Armand Glick and found that Henri Schumacher was born in 1708, graduated from Hamburg Seminary 1737, preached (1740-50) and then disappeared. Perhaps it was the same person who appeared in Nova Scotia, as Daniel Schumacher, giving his birth as 1729, to start a settlement which failed.

In 1854 Daniel Schumacher appeared in New York in rags. He sought Melchoir Muhlenburg, head of the Lutheran church, claiming to have religious training but it could not be verified, perhaps because of the different name and birth date.

The Lutherans thought that people with insufficient training were demoralizing people, so Schumacher was sent to Reading, PA and later to Berks Co., PA (an area known "Allemangel" which means "most desolate" in German) where he endeared himself to people.

Daniel Schumacher married Anna Maria Steigerwalt and they had seven children. They were neighbors of Johannes Glick. Schumacher baptized the youngest Glick children, Daniel (b. 1758), Frederick (b. 1760) and Peter (b. 1768) who years later married Anna Maria Barbara Schumacher (b. 1767). Schumacher's records show that he baptized 1,700 babies some not related to a church; he revisited some who were sick on several occasions. He also started Freiden's Church and twenty others in the mountains, besides keeping church records, making large colored birth and marriage certificates, and verses for various occasions.

Probably Philip Glick's (b. 1750) first granddaughter was Ann Seiple, from his first daughter, Margaretha, and Henry Strauss. Nancy Sechrest [130 Washington Avenue, Morristown, NJ 07960] is a descendant. While in Philadelphia for her husband's surgery, Nancy visited a library and found my 1982 publication. She sent a photo of Ann Seiple's colored birth certificate of 1807, found in the family Bible in Ohio, which was similar to Schumacher's marriage and birth certificates, known as Fraktur Art.

Two other granddaughters of Philip (b. 1750) were Marietta and Leah, who are descended from his son Philip (b. 1783). Both married Bradleys and settled in Huntington, IN where Nancy Sechrest's parents had a hardware which was next door to the Bradley's pharmacy. The two families did not realize that they were related.

Also, Mary Bowen [4885 Academy Street, San Diego, CA 92109-3460] is descended from Leah Bradley and on the other side from John Findley Crowe who founded Hanover College (Hanover, IN 47243) in 1827. My husband, Ned Guthrie, was Head of the Chemistry Department at Hanover College from 1926 to 1962.

Continuing with Daniel Schumacher, his supposed mother offered an inheritance if Daniel would confess to Muhlenburg that he was her son but he never did. Schumacher became a U.S. citizen when he went to Philadelphia for a church conference in 1775. He died in 1787. Daniel (Henri?) was the great grandfather of Juliann Glick.

Peter Glick (b. 1768) and Anna Maria Barbara Schumacher (b. 1767) [referred to as Barbara, hereafter] grew up as neighbors and married. Their children were (C1) Henry (b. 1787), (C2) Mary (b. 1788), (C3) Philip (b. ca. 1790, based on the 1790 census), (C4) Lydia or Letitia (b. ca. 1794), (C5) Sanilla Judy (b. ca. 1796), (C6) Benjamin (b. 1800), (C7) John (b. 1803, d. 1885) and (C8) "Pony" Jacob (b. 1804, d. 1840), who was my great grandfather. His wife, my great grandmother, Elizabeth Hoyman Glick, died in 1842.

C7        JOHN GLICK (April 30, 1803 - August 20, 1885) OBITUARY*

"John Glick was born in Berks County, Pennsylvania. He lived 82 years, 3 months and 22 days. His parents, Peter and Barbara Glick emigrated to this state when the subject of this memoir was but three years old, and settled in the forest near Lithopolis on what is now the farm adjoining the one on which Mr. John Glick died. Brother Peter Glick (b. 1768) lived but one year after he came to this state, and was the first person buried at the old Glick Church grave yard. The country being one vast forest then, underbrush had to be cut away to make a place for the grave.

In the month of August 1822, he was married to Miss Catharine Whitzel and they lived together in happy wedlock for 63 years. Their home, during all these years being one of great affection and enjoyment. By this union there were given to them ten children - five boys and five girls. Three have preceeded him to the spirit land. The remaining seven are living in this state, and were present at the funeral. There are now living 29 grandchildren and 26 great grandchildren. After the marriage of Brother and Sister Glick they moved to a farm near Tarlton. Here they lived fifteen years, when they moved to the farm on which he died having lived on it 49 years. He resided in Ohio more than 79 years. In the year 1831 Brother Glick and his wife were converted and united with the M. E. Church, and for fifty four years he remained a faithful and consistent member of the church, and for more than half a century he has been a member of the Lithopolis society. He and his wife, Abraham Harris and wife, Daniel Foor and wife and Father Bailey and wife were the founders of this society. Father Bailey being a class leader; they were also the prime movers and workers in the erection of the present church building. He was trustee at the time and continued a trustee for many years after. Brother Glick as a christian was quiet and unassuming but his religion was marked by his steadfast consistent devotion to the cause for Christ. Few have excelled him in the purity of his life and conduct. On the bed of death his testimony was bright and clear. He gave proof that his life, through grace, was to be ended in the grandest conquest over his last enemy. His death was "the death of the righteous." Well might it be said of him, "Mark the perfect - the end of that man is peace." As a citizen he was honest, temperate and upright; as a Christian he was consistent, devoted and benevolent. "For him to live was Christ, but to die was gain." "Our loss is but his infinite gain." His sorrowing widow and bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community. He leaves a widow, two sons, five daughters, one brother [Benjamin, b. July 6, 1800, d. January 1888] (now 84 years), and a large circle of friends and relatives to mourn his departure.

Second Timothy, IV, Chapter 6th, 7th and 8th Verses: - 6th, "I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand."

7th, "I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course. I have kept the faith."

8th, "Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the Righteous Judge, shall give at that Day, and not to me only but unto all them also that live his appearing."

His funeral services were held in the M. E. Church by his pastor, Rev. R. Watson, assisted by Rev. J. Heffley. His remains were followed to the cemetery by a large concourse of people, and were laid there to rest. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." [Burial was at the Lithopolis Cemetery.]

Pall Bearers were: T. H. Dill, H. H. Roberts, George Hartman, John Cormany, Jacob Rohr and Charles Hensel."

CATHARINE WHITZEL GLICK (June 1, 1804 - August 1, 1895) OBITUARY*

"Catharine Wetzel, daughter of Henry and Nancy Whitzel, was born in Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania and died at her late residence in Bloom Township, on the 73rd anniversary of her marriage, at the great age of 91 years and 2 months.

Her father, mother and 11 children, 4 sons and 7 daughters, emigrated from Pennsylvania in 1818 and settled in this township, near Greencastle, Ohio.

She was the last one of the family, all of whom lived to be quite old. Her mother, two brothers and one sister being near 90 years old at the time of their death. Her oldest brother was killed in the war of 1812.

Catharine Whitzel when 18 years of age was married to John Glick, August 4, 1822. They lived together for over 63 years, her husband having died August 20, 1885, in the 83 year of his age. There was born unto the ten children: five sons and five daughters; three sons having passed over the river before her. She lived to see her youngest child pass the half century mark. She leaves 26 grand chilrend and 31 great grandchildren.

When first married they settled near Tarlton, Ohio, which was then a wild wilderness where they built a cabin and cultivated the farm for fifteen years, when in 1836 they moved to their late residence in this township, where she lived for almost 60 years. She was the oldest person living in this township at the time of her death.

With her husband she joined the Methodist Church at Tarlton over 70 years ago, and when they moved here the old methodist church was being build and they helped to complete it and could always be seen occupying the same seat, and unless prevented by sickness always present at public services; she is the last one of thos that were members at that time.

Their house was always a home for ministers of all denominations, of the old pioneer ministers at the time were: Father Gilruth; Jacob Young; Father Laws; Father Lewis; David Whitcomb; Joseph Trimble and many others. Among the old members at the time will be found the names of Sater Stevenson; Grandpa Bailey; Wm. Bailey; Daniel Foor; Abraham Harris; Joshua Glanville; Father Bogart and others.

During the last years of her life on account of the infirmities incident to her age, she was not able to attend public worship, but was always glad to see the ministers of the Lord Jesus, and died as she had lived in the hopes of the reserection morn. There has passed away another of our o!d saints on earth, where she has gone to meet the loved ones that have gone before; and may her christian devotion and example be a bright light to show her children and friends the pathway to that better world where we toil not nor is there suffering or sorrow.

Second Corinthians, V, Chapter, 1st Verse: - "For we know that, if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Sparks, assisted by Rev. J. Heffley.

Pall Bearers were: Joseph A. Benner, T. H. Courtright, Peter Hoy, D. L. Smith, H. H. Roberts and Charles Hensel." [Burial was at the Lithopolis Cemetery.]

* Both obituaries were sent to Juliann Glick in Illinois by the children of Catherine since John and "Pony" Jacob Glick were brothers.

C8 "Pony" Jacob Glick (b. 1804) married Elizabeth Hoyman (b. 1807). Their children were David (b. 1828), Lydia (b. 1830, d. 1835), twins Noah and Eliza Elizabeth (b. 1832), twins Juliann and Sarah Ann (b. 1834) and Loretta (b. 1837).

At a family get together "Pony" Jacob wrestled with a cousin, Gideon Glick, was injured, had pneumonia (called winter fever) and died in 1840.

Later Elizabeth, his widow, married James Bradley at Wyandotte, Fairfield, Co., Ohio and gave birth to Joseph T. on Nov 22, 1842 before she died, on Nov 26, 1842, as a result of childbirth. We do not know who reared Joseph T. A young man by the name of Joseph T. Glick, age 19, joined the 57th Infantry at Camp Vance, Findley, Ohio. He reenlisted January 1, 1864 at Belle Fonte, Alabama for 3 years. In June, 1865 he deserted, at Louisville, KY, taking an Army shelter tent worth $9.81, a charge which was later dismissed. He was found dead in Louisville, KY in July 1865. Each brother and sister were given $31.42 from his savings. The Army listed Joseph as a farmer, 5'7" tall, brown eyes, light hair and complexion. The 57th Infantry Company was discharged in August 1865 at Little Rock, Arkansas. Steve Coppess, my grandson, has this Army record.

"Pony" Jacob's other children were taken care of by relatives. Juliann was taken by her mother's sister, Apolonia, who was married to Daniel Swander. When Apolonia died, Juliann lived with Tenna Smith Blackwood, daughter of Magdalena Hall. I don't know who cared for her twin, Sarah Ann. Eliza was taken by Aunt Mary Ritter, Noah by Aunt Judy Glick Shook.

Noah Glick tells in Our Older Boys about riding a horse for weeks on the threshing floor which made his bottom so sore that he ate his meals standing. He also remembers being perched on sacks of corn on either side of the horse, which he took to the mill. The horse stumbled in Big Walnut Creek and went on to the mill leaving Noah in water up to his neck. He knew it was deeper on both sides and he couldn't swim, so he waited in the water until somebody came along and rescued him. Loretta, the youngest child, was reared by Uncle Benjamin and Aunt Anna Swander (daughter of Philip's (b. 1750) daughter Eve and Frederick Swander) until Anna died in 1839. Benjamin later married Sarah Slasser. Loretta married Benjamin Zwayer in 1858.

On December 14, 1900 the six children of "Pony" Jacob (b. 1804) and Elizabeth Hoyman got together at Canal Winchester, Ohio where they had a photograph made for the first time since they were separated in 1842. The caption [p. 49] precedes the photograph [p. 50] in our 1982 book. It included David (b. 1828) [p. 51-53], Noah (b. 1832) [p. 58-60], Eliza Eisaman (b. 1832) [p. 53], Juliann Glick (b. 1834) [p. 26-43 & 60], Sarah Ann (b. 1834, never married) [p. 60], and Loretta Zwayer (b. 1837) [p. 60-67].

On October 11, 1857, Juliann (b. 1834) married Isaac Sylvester Glick (b. 1836, d. 1925), who signed his name as I. S. Glick. His parents were Lewis and Mary Swander Glick, sister of Anna. Lewis Glick's parents were Daniel Glick (b. 1790, d. 1869) and Elizabeth Solt. In 1907 I. S. and Juliann Glick celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a community praise service and dinner in their grove of trees with boards for tables and benches. A photographer took pictures of the family and community during the afternoon of the celebration. Their photograph appears [page 26] in our 1982 book, also their descendants [pages 27-43]. In March 1870, I. S. and Juliann Glick came to their home in Illinois with their children, Orlando 11, George 9, Levi 7, Luella 5, Charles 2, and William 4 months. They traveled by train to Pana, Illinois, where I. S. Glick's sister Sarah and her husband William Henry Harrison Miller were living. [Miller was named by a neighbor for President William Henry Harrison who died of pneumonia within a month of his inauguration.] Juliann had $1,000 sewed in the hem of her dress to pay for about 80 acres of land, which they had not seen. They had to walk a mile or two between stations in Indianapolis, Orlando and George carried a lard can of food for the trip but forgot water so Charles cried himself to sleep for lack of a drink. The animals, wagons and furniture came in a boxcar. Their new home was 12 miles from Pana and the roads were just paths, axle deep in mud, from one neighbor to another. The horses were soon exhausted, so strangers along the road loaned their horses for a distance.

Edmond Glick, a grandson of Philip (b. 1750) lived on the adjoining farm.

Williamsburg on the Ridge was the closest settlement with a doctor and a church; the settlement was later moved to Lakewood, because of the high altitude of the Ridge. Lake Miantowania was drained in 1884, to permit the establishment of Lakewood.

The I. S. Glick family drove 8 miles to "Center", a Lutheran Church near Cowden, before joining Zion Methodist in 1874. Zion was started in November 1869, the year my father, William, was born in Ohio. William always remembered the time when his mother asked him to bring cookies from the cellar when the preacher came for Sunday dinner, even though she knew they were missing. William said, "There are none, I ate them all". All their children except Ora found mates in the community and all were members of Zion Church located 1-1/2 miles west of their farm on the road to Lakewood..

Juliann had rheumatism which explains why I don't remember her walking. I. S. Glick carried her on a chair to the buggy to go to church; after school I went to their house for the night to help cook and clean.

Sarah Ann, Juliann's twin, died September 6, 1912 at the home of sister Loretta Zwayer in Ohio. Juliann died three days later, on September 9, 1912, and is buried at the Ridge Cemetery, 2 miles south of the I. S. Glick farm.

Isaac Sylvester's father, Lewis Glick, (b 1816, d. 1847) died at age 32, leaving Isaac Sylvester, a 10 year old, as the man of the house.

Lewis Monroe Glick, Jr., was born Nov 8, 1847 to Mary Swander Glick, six months after her husband, Lewis, died leaving her with 6 children: Isaac Sylvester (b. 1836), Levi Jerobiam (b. 1838, d. 1861), Elizabeth (b. 1841) who married Peter Fridley, Sarah (b. 1843) who married William Henry Harrison Miller, Hannah (b. 1846) who married William Solt, and Lewis Monroe Jr. (b. 1847) who married Jane Springston in Nov 1870.

Levi Jerobiam (b. 1838, d. 1861) was a "bleeder" who probably required extra care. He bled to death at age 22. I have a paid bill from Dr. William Homrighaus (probably the grandson of Benjamin and Mary Crumbley) for $18.00 for care and a coffin. Another bill for $13.50 was for the mother and daughter. Physicians at that time didn't know the cause of bleeding, though it may have been from the lack of Vitamin C to clot the blood, or infections, called "blood poisoning" in those days.

Isaac Sylvester had two grandchildren who were bleeders. Elfleda died at 30 years and Randall (Ranald?) at 7 years.

Mary Swander Glick and the Fridleys lived near Marcy, OH until 1884 when Mary came to live with Sarah Glick Miller in Shelbyville, IL. Mary died of a stroke on July 4, 1898 at the home of her son, Isaac Sylvester, and was buried in Shelbyville.

A generation earlier Daniel Glick Jr., (b. 1790) married Catherine Solt, who died leaving Lewis and Isaac. Then he married her sister, Eve Solt, and they moved to Peterville, IN (except for Lewis, b. 1815), where Daniel and Eve had 5 more children. They were Betsy (b. 1825, m. Lewis Boyer), Amanda (b. 1827, m. William Marr), Levina (b. 1830, m William Cury), Adam (b. 1839) and Sylvanus (b. 1842, m. .... McCallie).

The Ohio and Illinois families visited often and Isaac Sylvester subscribed to the Toledo Blade, a weekly newspaper, for family news

I wondered why Minnie Smith lived with my grandparents, Ella Hildreth with the Kerschners across the road; also Emma Holiday with the Fosters, two miles west, whose son was handicapped and was of limited help on the farm. Isaac Sylvester and Juliann's son, Levi Jerobiam (b. 1862, named for Uncle Levi Jerobiam who died in 1861), married Ella Hildreth (b. 1866, m. 1884, d. 1896). She died leaving Clarence, Grace and Ralph, a 4 year old. My grandmother cared for Ralph until Levi married Emma Holiday in 1899.

Luella, daughter of Isaac Sylvester and Juliann, died in 1889, leaving Francis, 1 year, in Grandmother's care. I.S. Glick and Juliann's son, Charles Walter, died in 1895 leaving Irl, 5 years and Walter, 3 years. Since they lived just down the hill the boys were at their grandparents' every day and their mother helped by picking cherries, and assisting in other ways. Thus, my grandmother often had 4 grandchildren to keep out of mischief.

About this time Luella's sister, Ora Glick, visited in Ohio, married Charles Glick (her first cousin, son of David (b. 1828) who was Juliann's brother!) and returned to Illinois for the birth of their 2nd child in 1898.

Minnie Smith Propeck was younger than I. S. Glick and Juliann's son William [my father] but married about the same time as William and Lena. Floyd and Earl Propeck were about the same age as my sister, Mabel, and me .

I have no proof that Minnie, Ella, and Emma may have been from an Orphan Train but my grandparents had been orphans who were fortunate to be cared for by relatives. Grandmother could use some help also.

Eastern cities had lots of homeless children who were cared for by the Orphan Society then placed on the Orphan Train for Western communities where farmers always needed help, and help more than paid for their keep. Trains sent notices to newspapers announcing their arrival details; the children were taken to a public building where applicants could choose their child. Perhaps they paid a modest fee to compensate for earlier care of a child (who was well dressed and had a Bible). It is estimated that 150,000 rode Orphan Trains from the 1850's to 1929.

I hope the preceding pages will fill some gaps in Peter Glick's (b. 1768) family. So often when parents die young, as with both his son "Pony" Jacob and his son's wife, Elizabeth Hoymann Glick, children are separated and facts are lost.

Although our ancestors in common, Johannes Glick (1715-1783) and Magdalena Herr Glick (1724-1790), settled in Pennsylvania in 1754 as related in the 1918 Genealogy of the Glick Family and again in its 1982 update Descendants of Johannes and Magdalena Glick, several of their children found the need to move on. I'll try to explain the reasons and circumstances.

Johannes Glick bought 270 acres in Lehigh Co., PA in 1758 and added more to his holdings later. He was also a blacksmith and taught his son, Philip (b. 1750), the trade prior to the Revolutionary War. Philip was not in the war but used his blacksmith tools to make and repair guns and cannons for the Colonists, thus earning money for doweries for his several daughters. Philip's brothers John George (b. 1749), Henry (b. 1755), Daniel (b. 1758) and Frederick (b. 1760) were in the Revolutionary War.

George and Philip are not mentioned in Johannes' 1780 will. George likely received the first son inheritance and settled in Cretonia and Girardsville, PA, where several of his descendants became bankers and lawyers.

Henry's older children were sons, all of whom died early. Henry's will, dated 1804, noted that he had four daughters: one was married to a Yambert, another to a Keller, and the other two were unmarried. Henry died in 1804, the first of the brothers to die.

As was the custom when each child married, Johannes gave the couple a portion of his land on which a cabin was built. This arrangement had been satisfactory until the many grandchildren became of marriageable age. In looking elsewhere for land, son Daniel (b. 1758), having a large family, realized that land was no longer available for sale in Pennsylvania.

Eastern Ohio had already been settled, but in 1800, Fairfield Co. in central Ohio was organized and open for settlement at $2.50 per acre. Both Daniel and Peter sold their farms in Pennsylvania to Frederick. In 1801 or 1802 Daniel and Peter went to Fairfield Co. to buy land, as did many of their neighbors. Although it was virgin forest, Daniel's portion had an abandoned cabin with a puncheon floor and a wooden chimney. Daniel and his sons Solomon (b. 1788) and Daniel, Jr.(b. 1790) made several improvements. By 1804 the cabin was ready for Daniel's family. Daniel probably took with him a wooden sea chest measuring 52" long, 24" high, and 24" wide which his parents, Johannes and Magdalena, brought from Germany to Berks Co., PA in 1754. The name "Magdalena Glick" and a date "1798" are painted on the front side. It has been passed down in the family and was recently given by Sarah M. Glick, widow of Victor Glick, to her son, David (b. 1957) to mark nine generations of ownership.

Since Peter also bought land, his son Henry 17 years, daughter Mary 16 years and a friend, John Ritter, went along to help build cabins for Peter and others. Although Mary's presence was undoubtedly for domestic purposes, she and John Ritter married a few years later. [see pages 17-18]

Philip (b. 1750), after learning that brothers Daniel and Peter planned to move their families to Ohio in 1806, made a will on September 13, 1806 and hurriedly left for Ohio to buy land for his own teen-aged sons; John P. (17), Jacob (15), Jonathan (13) and Henry (11). Philip's first son, George (b. 1779), had been given his inheritance and married Christina Reidenaur, who was from a prominent family. George's grandson, George Washington Glick, later became the Governor of Kansas where he served two terms. Kansas placed a statue of him in Statuary Hall in Washington, DC in 1914. [More information and a picture appear on p. 3-4 of the 1982 book.] Philip's daughters were already married and living in Lehigh, PA.

Philip asked Daniel's family to build him a cabin on his new property in Ohio. Philip expected to return to Ohio with Peter when Peter moved his family from Pennsylvania. A companion traveling with Philip brought the tragic news on November 10, 1806, that Philip had died enroute home and had been buried near Harrisburg, PA. Philip's son, Peter (b. 1785), was executor of the will which distributed assets in pounds and sterling.

While Daniel was in Ohio supervising the building of cabins, Peter was making preparations for his family's move so farming could be started in 1807. Peter volunteered to take Philip's widow, Susannah (Baberine/Baber/Bieber) Glick (b. 1752, d. 1825), her minor children, and possibly some of the Brobsts. It may have been on this trip that Peter's youngest child, Jacob, not yet 2 years old, received his nickname "Pony" Jacob (by which he was known for the rest of his life). It distinguished him from Philip and Susannah's son Jacob, 15 years.

While building a barn on his new Ohio farm, Peter (b. 1758) was killed June 20, 1807, when a log fell on him. On October 12, 1807, Peter's widow, Barbara Schumacher Glick and Philip's widow, Susannah, went to Lancaster, OH, the county seat, to have guardians appointed for their minor children: Uncle Daniel (b. 1758) and Daniel Woodring for Barbara's Lydia/Letitia 11, Judy 9, Benjamin 7, John 3 and "Pony" Jacob 2. For Susannah's children their older brothers Philip (b. 1783) and Peter (b. 1785) were appointed for John 17, Jacob 15, Jonathan 13 and Henry 11. Uncle Daniel died in 1824. His will, made in 1823, was discovered by Helen Markwood of Lancaster, OH [see Supplement 2].

Barbara Glick subsequently married Lewis Kurtz on April 16, 1809; a license is in the Fairfield Co. Library. Philip's widow, Susannah, who died in 1825, was buried near the Hoy Church mentioned earlier. The coffin-shaped tombstone costing $62.25 was paid for in 1827.

Fairfield and Pickaway Counties were soon inhabited by many Glicks and their former neighbors. Daniel's son Solomon Glick (b. 1788) and his large family were the first to go to Bartholomew Co., IN in April 1845, where Solomon died in October of the same year. Solomon's brother, Daniel, Jr., (b. 1790) settled there also. Philip's descendants and others soon followed. Even today that area has many Glicks including some who have married other Glicks, like my grandparents I. S. Glick and Juliann Glick did.

Peter's (b. 1768) son Benjamin's (b. 1800) third child, Joab (b. 1825) was the first to move to Shelby Co. in southern Ohio. Their first daughter, Sanilla, was born enroute in 1848.

My grandparents, I. S. and Juliann Glick, moved to Shelby Co., IL in 1870 and Mary Swander Glick, widow of Lewis Glick (b. July 17, 1816), moved there in 1884 to be near her son, I. S. Glick and daughter Sarah Glick Miller. Glicks and their descendants now live in many states including Alabama, Arizona, Utah, and Wisconsin.

EXPLANATION OF CODE

I will use approximately the same letter and number system as in my 1982 publication, considering A as Johannes Glick (b. 1715); B1 (Peter), B2, etc., his children; C1 (Henry), etc., his grandchildren, etc. Repeats, such as B1, with the same name and birth date, means a 2nd marriage. A family will be completed before starting another, usually several pages later.

Two contemporary contributors may provide slightly different information about the same person, which may differ from that which I previously reported.

- B1 Peter [identified as A-VII in our 1982 Book, 7th child of Johannes & Anna Magdalena Herr Glick] (b. 1768, Albany Twp., Berks Co., PA, d. June 1807) was baptized by Rev. Daniel Schumacher. Peter, wife Barbara and children, moved to Bloom Twp., Fairfield Co., OH late in 1806. After Peter was killed while building a barn in Ohio, relatives cleared brush on his farm for his burial. The graves of Peter Glick (b. 1768) and Barbara Glick (b. 1767) are across the road south of the main cemetery. My daughter, Alice Coppess, reports that the graves are difficult to locate because the stones are level with the grass and very close to the road. Others asked to use the area as a cemetery which became known as the Glick cemetery, two miles south of Lithopolis though only a wilderness then. Later it became known as Hoy Cemetery. Soon they built a church there, known as Hoy Methodist, now a United Methodist Church. Peter was married in 1787 to Barbara Schumacher (b. Sept 12, 1767, Berks Co., d. Jan 1, 1835); she was buried beside Peter.
- C Children of Peter and Barbara Glick were: (C1) Henry (b. 1787), (C2) Mary (b. 1788), (C3) Philip (b. ca. 1790), (C4) Lydia/Letitia (b. ca. 1794), (C5) Sanilla Judy (b. ca. 1796), (C6) Benjamin (b. 1800), (C7) John (b. 1803), (C8) "Pony" Jacob (b. 1804).
- C1 Henry Glick (b. 1787, d. 1857) born in Pennsylvania, m. 1810 to Anna Margaret Deldine (b. 1793, d. 1863). Both were buried in Hodges Cemetery, Bloom Township, Logan County. The tombstone cost $40 and Andrew Glick was Administrator in Probate court.

D Their 11 children were: (D1) Anna Margaret (b. 1814), (D2) Stephen (b. 1816, d. July 1834), (D3) Sarah (b. 1820), (D4) Peter (b. 1823, married Catherine Elizabeth .....), (D5) Margaret (b. 1825, d. 1841), (D6) Henry (b. 1828), (D7) Perry (b. 1830, d. 1840), (D8) Elias M. (b. ?, d. ?) (D9) Alvin H. (b. ?, m. 1865), (D10) Andrew (b. 1835, m. Sarah Chambers 1865), (D11) Stephen (b. 1836, d. 1854). Stephen died in a shooting but the intended victim was his brother, Andrew, over a rival girl friend). It appears that if a child died they gave the next child the same name, Stephen (b. 1836) in this case.

D1 Anna Margaret Glick (b. 1814, d. 1885), m. 1834 to Stephen Cole, buried Hodges Cemetery, Logan County, OH. Her eight children follow:

E1 Henry L. Cole (b. 1835, d. 1841), Hodges Cemetery, Logan County, OH.

E2 Shadrach Alcon Cole (b. 1836, d. 1913?)

E3 Chlorinda Cole (b 1839, d. 1905), m. 1853 or 1859 to William Hill, buried Pleasant Township, Logan Co.

E4 Mary Anna Cole (b. 1841, d. 1866), married a Mr. Rairdon

E5 John Wesley Cole (b. 1843, d. 1923), married Anna Badger

E6 Joseph Wilson Cole (b. 1845, d. 1912), m. Lucy Follett; buried in Belle Fontaine, OH.

E7 Perry Cole (b. 1846, d. 1918), m. Laura .....

E8 Harmon Cole (b. 1853, d. 1916 of Bright's disease), married 1874 to Mary E. Frederick (d. 1904); he is buried in Shelby Co. Second wife was Della Cisco.

F Children of Harmon Cole (b. 1853, d. 1916) and wife Mary E. Frederick:

F1 Iva Estelle Cole (b. 1876 in Bloomfield Township, Logan Co., d. 1938 in St Louis, MO, heart attack, cremated. 1st husband Joseph Edwards, 2nd Louis Schuchman.

- G2 Ruth Iva Keiber (b. 1923, Logansville, Logan Co., OH)
- G3 Mary Helen Keiber (b. 1927, Rosewood, Champaign Co., OH), m. 1942 to Richard Gierhart at Sidney, OH.

G4 Dorothy Louise Keiber (b. 1930, d. 1930). Was still born.

Clara Woodruff, 16751 Deam Road, Sidney, OH 45365-9458

[a direct descendant of Peter (b. 1768), Henry (b. 1787) and Margaret Cole (b. 1814)] provided information about Henry's descendants.

C2 Mary (or Maria) Barbara Glick (b. Apr 4, 1788, Berks Co., PA, d. Sept 9, 1877) m. 1807 or 1808 to John Ritter (b. 1777, d. Feb 1857, Madison Twp., Henry Co., OH). John Ritter had the first blacksmith shop and built the first weather board house in the area; the house was painted red. After his death in 1857, his wife, Mary Glick Ritter, lived with her children and was buried in Shunk Cemetery, Henry Co., near Napoleon, OH.

About 1816 Rev. Henry Neibel came to Pickaway Co. and John Ritter and Mary Glick Ritter were converted from Lutheran to Evangelical. The 9 Ritter children were:

D1 Henry Ritter (b. 1809 Madison Township, d. 1830), buried Glick Cemetery [Henry was named for both grandfathers].

D2 Hannah Ritter (b. 1811, d. 1873), m. David Hoy, buried Henry Co., Shunk Cemetery, near Napoleon, OH.

D3 John Ritter (b. 1812, d. 1871), m. Elizabeth Shetterly (b. 1820, d. 1912). He is buried in Shunk Cemetery.

D4 Mary Ritter (b. Nov 1814, (triplet), d. July 1816), buried Glick Cemetery.

D5 Joseph Ritter (b. Nov 1814, (triplet), d. 1874), m. Frances Hoy (b. 1818, d. 1895); buried Forest Hill Cemetery, Napoleon, OH. In 1851 the John Ritter family, including son Joseph and his family, moved to Henry Co., OH. John settled 5 miles east of Napoleon, near the Shunk Cemetery. Joseph bought 1.5 sections of virgin forest on the bank of the Maumee River. Nine of his eleven children were girls with only John and Samuel to help earn a living on the land. On several occasions he was forced to sell a portion of his land so that he could pay the taxes.

Joseph built a school house on his land and Frances (b. 1828) started to school at 3 years; Joseph decided that only English was to be spoken in their home, realizing that English would be the common language. Joseph and Frances' children follow:

E1 Sarah Ritter (b. 1838, d. 1932), unmarried, buried Glenwood Cemetery, Napoleon.

E2 Lydia Ritter (b. 1839, d. 1924), m. Nathaniel Hartman, buried Forest Hill

E3 Frances Ritter (b. 1844, d. 1928), m. Ezra Wolf, buried Forest Rose, Lancaster, OH.
Frances met Ezra Wolfe in 1865 at a band concert in Napoleon and married him in 1868..
Ezra started his first band when 16 years old and formed bands in Ohio, Indiana and Missouri. Ezra's band at Vicksburg had to be disbanded because of sickness and death, after which Ezra marched with Gen. Sherman, Ewing and Grant to the sea. Ezra composed and hand wrote his music and was probably the most prominent individual with a Ritter kinship. Ezra's band was with the Honor Guard when Lincoln's body was in the rotunda in Columbus, OH. Frances was the story teller of the Ritter family. Frances and Ezra's children were:

- F1 Lulu E. Wolfe (b. 1867)
- F2 Salem Ritter Wolfe (b. 1869)
- F3 Wallace Ezra Wolfe (b. 1873)
- F4 Frances Maude Wolfe (b. 1875); her son, Herbert Turner, was responsible for the extensive Ritter family history.
- F5 Royal D. Wolfe (b. 1880)
- E4 Katherine Ritter (b. 1846, d. 1877), m. Joseph Grim, buried Forest Hill, Napoleon
- E5 John Ritter (b. 1848, d. 1912), m. Nan Abbott, buried Mausoleum, Napoleon, OH
- E6 Samuel Ritter (b. 1852, d. 1917), m. Hannah Travis, buried Forest Hill
- E7 Cynthia Ritter (b. ?, d. ?), unmarried, Lingle Cemetery, Napoleon, OH
- E8 Mary Ritter (b. ?, d. 1902), unmarried, Forest Hill, Napoleon, OH
- E9 Augusta Ritter (b. 1855, d. 1932), m. Frank Mann, buried Forest Hill
- E10 Clara Ritter (b. 1857, d. 1928), m. John Albert Lowry, buried Forest Hill
- E11 Jurya Ritter (b. ?, d. 1878), unmarried, Forest Hill
- D6 Elizabeth Ritter (b. Nov 1814, (triplet), d. 1846) m. 1838 Levi Niebel (b. 1816, d. 1912 in Seneca Co., OH). Elizabeth was not listed in the 1830 census, perhaps because she was living with a relative as they did sometimes.

E1 Elijah Niebel (b. 1839, d. 1929), m. Emily Ann Young (b. 1846)

F1 Minnie Irene Niebel (b. 1866), m. William L. Mathers

G1 Laurence R. Mathers (b. 1891)

G2 Clara M. Mathers (b. 1893)

G3 Florence A. Mathers (b. 1897), m. Raymond E. Kassing

H1 Robert M. Kassing (b. 1925)

H2 Marguerite Kassing (b. 1930)

F2 Clara Ann Niebel (b. 1867), m. Rev. John Hall Arnold (b. 1858)

G1 Cuyler Harold Arnold (b. 1894), m. Thelma Kanney

H1 Cuyler Kanney Arnold (b. 1925)

H2 Richard Arnold (b. 1925)

G2 Kenneth Leiter Arnold (b. 1896)

G3 Emily Ruth Arnold (b. 1899), m. John Wesley Seneff (b. 1898)

H1 Gordon Arnold Seneff (b. 1925, Granite City, IL.), m. Lois Marie Hoelscher (b. 1926).

His grandfather (Michael) or great grandfather (John Wesley) Seneff took care of the farm for a family who made the grey-blue enamel granite cookware used by many for decades.

E2 John Niebel (b. 1840), not married

I1 Barbara Joanne Seneff (b. 1950), m. David Carl Doerr (b. 1946)

J1 Brian David Doerr (b. 1984)

I2 John Wesley Seneff (b. 1951)

I3 William A. Seneff (b. 1953), m. Tamra J. Jarvis (b. 1958)

J1 Nicole Marie Seneff (b. 1982)

J2 Jonathan Andrew Seneff (b. 1984)

I4 David Gordon Seneff (b. 1955) (twin)

I5 Daniel Bryan Seneff (b. 1955) (twin)

[Their father, Gordon Seneff, reported that the twins were brain damaged at birth and have been institutionalized since 1958]

H2 Joanne Laura Seneff (b. 1927, d. 1981), m. Robert Earl Roth (b. 1925)

- I1 Michael Roth (b. 1949)
- I2 Nicholas Roth (b. 1950)
- I3 Andrew Roth (b. 1952)
- I4 Emily Roth (b. 1954)

- F3 Florabell Niebel (b. 1869)
- F4 Sarah A. Niebel (b. 1872)
- F5 ..... Niebel (b. 1873)
- F6 Arther Chalmer Niebel (b. 1878)

- D7 Mary Magdalena Ritter, (b. 1818, d. 1874), buried Harrison Twp, Henry Co., m. 1836 to Levi Spangler (b. 1816, d. 1884), buried Shunk Cemetery, near Malinta, OH. Mary Magdalena [likely named for the triplet who died at age 2] was called "Polly" in her father's will.
- D8 Peter Ritter (b. 1819, d. 1866), m. Wilhelmina Wiggins; both buried in Glenwood Cemetery, Napoleon, OH.
- D9 Lydia Ritter (b. 1825, d. 1847), m. a Mr. Culp. The 1850 census included a Mary Culp, 5 years, in the John Ritter household and is probably the granddaughter mentioned by John Ritter in his 1847 will.

Gordon and Lois Seneff, 3207 Northridge Drive, Pueblo, CO 81008, provided the information on descendants of Mary and John Ritter. [Gordon is descended from the triplet Joseph Ritter (b. 1814, d. 1846)].

- C3 Philip Glick (b. ca. 1790)
- C4 Lydia/Letitia (b. ca. 1794, m. Thomas Kurtz)
- C5 Sanilla Judy (b. ca. 1796, d. ?), m. Jacob Shook. Judy had sons Elias and Jerobiam.
- C6 Benjamin Glick (b. 1800, Berks Co., d. 1888), Fairfield, OH, m. 1820 to Anna Swander (b. 1802, d. Dec 1839), m. 2nd wife, Sarah Slasser (b. 1794, d. 1877). The 6 children of Anna and Benjamin Glick follow:

(D1) Daniel (b. 1822), (D2) Mary (b. 1824), (D3) Joab (b. 1825), (D4) Reuben (b. 1828),
(D5) Darius (b. 1831), (D6) Lucas (b. 1837), (D7) they raised niece Loretta (b. 1837), daughter of "Pony" Jacob and Elizabeth Hoyman Glick, after the death of Loretta's parents, thus she (D7) was known as a sister to the other children.

D1 Daniel Glick (b. 1822 Fairfield, d. ?, at a granddaughter's), burial in Deval, OH

D2 Mary Glick (b. 1824, d. 1878), unmarried.

D3 Joab Glick (b. 1825, d. 1891), buried Elliott Cemetery., Jackson Twp., Shelby Co. OH, m. 1847 Mary Woodring (b. 1828, d. Apr 1869). Both born in Fairfield Co., OH. They were the first to move to Shelby Co., OH, then a wilderness, and settled where the town of Jackson Center is now located; later they moved to Sidney, OH. Later, brothers Reuben, Darius and Lucas came to Shelby Co. and lived nearby.

E The 9 children of Joab Glick (b. 1825, d. 1891) are: (E1) Sanilla (b. 1848), (E2) Lewis Benjamin (b. 1849), (E3) Levi Milton (b. 1851), (E4) Enon Urias (b. 1853, d.
1926?), (E5) John Philemon (b. 1855), (E6) Delila Jane (b. 1858), (E7) Sarah S. (b. 1859, (E8) Lydia (b. ?), (E9) Edmund Joab, half-brother (b. 1871 or 1875), son of Joab and second wife, Druscilla Meranda Bland.

RES. OF JOAB GLICK , JACKSON TWP. SHELBY CO.O.

- E1 Sanilla (b. March 1848, enroute to Shelby Co., d. 1929), m. F. H. Darnell
- E2 Lewis Benjamin (b. 1849, Jackson Twp., d. 1918, Elderado Springs, ID), m. 1872 Samantha Bland (b. 1854, d. 1926) of Reading, PA. He went to Utah where he became a member of the Church of Jesus Christ Latter Day Saints (Mormon). Lewis taught engineering at Idaho State College.

Lewis Benjamin lived in the family home following Joab's death. Lewis Benjamin (left) is using the sickle or cradle to cut the wheat while other men are tying the wheat in bundles and shocking it before storing them in the barn to dry. In the fall or winter it will be taken to the threshing floor where a boy rides a hourse with a bridle tied to a stake in the center of the threshing floor, keeping the horse going in a circle as it tramps the bundles of wheat. Men then rake the straw, leaving the grain on the floor. The grain is gathered and winded on a windy day to blow out the chaff and dirt before it is pounded into flour or taken to a mill.

[The complete listing of "Pony" Jacob's descendants is included in the 1982 book, pages 49-67]

I have received hundreds of pedigrees following the publication of Johannes and Magdalena Glick, our 1982 booklet. It is in many libraries and historical societies. Many people who have seen it have written for or provided additional information which has been included in this and earlier publications. Your assistance in adding to, or correcting errors, in this supplement will be appreciated.

Following a fall in 1994, I have had the good fortune of living with two daughters:

Dorothy & Tom Hale and Eleanor & Robert Mitchell

I've enjoyed genealogy and making quilts for my family and the community's needy. I recently celebrated my 97th birthday! I am grateful for my health and the assistance of my caring children which made it possible for me to complete this long-time goal of adding to my family's history while my strength permitted.

Copies of Johannes and Magdalena Glick (1982) and Supplements No. 1 (1983) and No. 2 (1986) are still available to you and/or your local genealogy and historical societies. Please send $5.00 to cover printing, postage and related expenses, as well as a list of the desired publications and your complete mailing address.

Orders may be sent to any of my daughters, or Sarah Glick:

Mrs. Alice Coppess, 26098 West Boxley Drive, Sheridan, IN 46069.

Mrs. Dorothy Hale, P. O. Box 553, Hartford City, IN 47348

Mrs. Eleanor Mitchell, 862 Sleepy Hollow Place, Greenwood, IN 46142

Mrs. Sarah M. Glick, R.R. 1, Box 118, Tower Hill, IL 62571

Appreciation is expressed to my son, Dr. Frank A. Guthrie, 120 Berkley Drive, Terre Haute, IN 47803-1708, for preparation of Supplement No. 3.

Appreciation is also expressed to the following individuals (note pages numbers):

SUPPLEMENT NO. 2 to DESCENDANTS of JOHANNES and MAGDALENA GLICK 1749-1983

This follows the copying of George H. Glick's 1918 Genealogy of the Glick Family, the 1982 publication by Sarah M. Glick and Gladys Glick Guthrie, and a supplement dated June 16, 1983 by Gladys Glick Guthrie and Alice Guthrie Coppess. Gladys Guthrie's continued correspondence with several people who exchanged information and contributed to the previous publications, and the inquiries and comments generated by the distribution of the books, and the seeking or relaying of information within various branches of the family are sufficient for another supplement. Regrettably, there is not space for inclusion of all the detail. No real attempt is made to list new members by birth or marriage into the family.

Research into the Lorhaupten Parish records done for Norma Jean (Mrs. Roy V.) Fox, Rt. #6 Box 194-B, Wapakoneta, Ohio 45895, gives some names and dates not previously included. These church records began in 1675. Michael Gluck (b ca 1646 d 13 Jan 1690 at 43 yrs) m Magdalena Seitz (b ca 1655 d 13 Aug 1705 at 50 y). Marriage on 17 July 1676. Her father was Hans (Hannss) Seitz. After Michael Gluck's death his widow married Hanns Michael Friederich, 9 May 1693. Hans Krug's son Michael Krig (b 1653 d 3 March 1704 at 51 yrs) m on 12 Feb 1683 Caspar Weygands' daughter Clara Weygands (b ca 1665 d 31 Jan 1709 at 44 yrs). Lorenz Gluck (b 1683 d 13 Dec 1745 at 62 yrs) m on 19 Feb 1707 Magdalena Krug (b 1686 d 17 Apr 1752 at 66 yrs).

Fred A. Baker sent material that he compiled from John F. Cavendish, Roberta G. Cook, Armand L. Glick and other sources. Lorenz and Magdalena Krug Gluck's children were: Margaretha Gluck b 30 Nov 1707; Jacob b 23 Dec 1709 d 11 May 1756 m Elizabetha; Michael b 9 July 1713 m Anna Magdalena Herr on 19 March 1739; Johannes b Oct 1715 m Anna Magdalena Herr 28 Apr 1744; Anna Christina b 30 Aug 1717 m Georg Gluck on 28 Apr 1744; Elisabetha b 30 May 1720; Phillip. There may have been more children in the family. No death date was given for the 3rd child, Michael. If his wife is the same person who married his brother Johannes she would have been nearly 15 in 1739. Anna Christina's husband was likely related to the family. The last child, Phillip, may have been the Johann Phillip who came on the same ship as Johannes and his family in 1754. Church records show that Johannes and Anna Magdalena had a daughter Maria Elisabetha and a son Johann George, 1746, 1747, who died at early ages in Germany. There seems to be no record in Germany or in the U. S. of the David that G.H. Glick mentions in the 1918 book.

NAMES AND ADDRESSES OF CONTEMPORARY RESEARCHERS follow the direct line of descent from the first named person, here and on following pages.

A George (1749-1883 and his 2nd wife Margaret Herr (1763-1835)'s last two children George (1800-1888) and Thomas (1804-1855) went West, Mt. Carmel, Il, (pg 3, 1982 book B7, B8). Their mother is buried in Old Sand Hill Cem. at Mt. Carmel, Il. Three Contemporary researchers from George are listed. He m Rachel Fisher (1799-1882), son Louis (1823-1895) m Mary Dyer (1822-1898) etc.

DATE FILMED May 5 2003 ITEM #22, YLIB USCAN GS# 1440545 Row#, 813

All Philip (1750-1806) George G. Schempp II states that Philip was married to a Miss Frier and after her death to Susannah. Some have implied that such a marriage was during the Revolutionary War. No children noted. A 1774 marriage to Susannah fits date of birth and Frieden Church baptism of their first child. There is discrepancy in dates, birth order, names and number of the children in the lists of various researchers. More evidence is needed to resolve these problems.

Maria Margaret b 26 June 1775 m Henry Strauss; Anna Magdalena b 16 Aug 1776 d 3 Feb 1852 m Henry Hall; John b 22 Oct 1777 d 29 June 1858 m Catherine ___, was in War of 1812; Susannah b June 24, 1778 d 11 March 1866 m Jacob Beery; George b 29 Dec 1779 d 12 Feb 1866 m Christina Ridenour (Reidnaur); Eva "Polly" (Catherine?) b 21 July 1780 d 29 May 1835 m Frederick Swander; Christina m 1808 to Henry Bachert(Baugher); Peter b Jan 2 1785 d 1840 m Susannah Crumley; Elizabeth m John Swander 1800, d not long after his 1853 death; Jacob b 1792 d 13 Dec 1838 m Sarah Glick; Jonathan b 17 Feb 1794 d 1866 m Catherine Kerschner; Henry b 10 Oct 1796 d 9 March 1871 m Sarah Peters; Philip Jr. was thought to be among the older of the children by some. If he was the Philip Glick to whom a half section of section 30 was deeded in 1809 he may have been an adult then. Susannah had John and Peter named guardians for her sons listed as being John 17 yrs, Jacob 15 yrs, Jonathan 13 yrs and Henry 11 yrs on 12 Oct 1807, until they reached maturity. George Schempp said that John was John P (for John Peter). The initial does not seem to be in the microfilm seen by Fred Baker, or in other reports of the document. Chester D. Bradley uses a 1793 birth date for Philip. Marijanetta Price P.O. Box 1522, Forks, Washington 98331 accepts this same date. She reports Chester Bradley ill and unable to communicate further on the history. The 1982 book includes a transaction in which Philip Jr. pays the other heirs, his brothers and sisters, for a quit claim deed to two wooded acres his father owned in Pennsylvania. One would assume that he was of age for this on 12 June 1813 in Pennsylvania and on 2 Feb 1814 in Ohio. If this Philip was named John Philip for his father he may have been born ca 1790 and be the John (or Schempp's John P) at 17 in the guardianship. If he is not why did he not receive something with the others for the quit claim or why was Philip Jr. not listed for having a guardian?

The Swander History, John Swander D.D. 1899, Tiffin, Ohio, gives 'Eva (Eve) "Polly" Glick as Frederick Swander's wife. B Oct 12, 1781 d May 20 1835 at 54 yrs 10 mo 8 da. Calculate and Fred Baker's dates used in the preceding paragraph seem better. His use of Catherine for her name may be correct, a part of the name. The Marriage date for John Swander and Elizabeth was in the history as was d.

Helen (Mrs. Scott) Markwood
1123 Olds Avenue
Lancaster, Ohio 43130

In 1985 Helen Schleich Markwood decided to trace her family. With the help of Fairfield County District Library and early land records at the County Court House, she found that Peter Glick her great, great grandfather was born 200 years earlier. She had not known of her Glick connections. She found Peter Glick's grave marker (1785-1840) in the "Glick" Cemetery about two miles south of Lithopolis, Ohio. His marker with inscriptions in English and German was near a coffin shaped memorial of Susannah Glick, widow of Philip. When she looked for connections in courthouse and land grants she was convinced that Peter was the son of Philip(1750-1806) and Susannah. Janet Shaw found the bill for Susannah's marker, $62.25, paid in 1827.

Peter Glick(1768-1807) and Barbara were buried on his farm. The same year, 1807, a church was built by German Reformed Lutherans on land partially donated by Philip, Peter and Mrs. Hoy. The 1918 book is not clear if Philip and Peter were Hloys or Glicks. Variously known as "Glick", "Brick", "Salem" church through the years, the present name is Hoy United Methodist Church. Peter and Barbara's graves are in a triangle of land across the road south. There is a 7 page list of markers still standing in the cemetery. No list or plat of graves for which markers have crumbled, broken or been nonexistent seems to exist. Broken markers are stacked neatly at the west boundary fence. It is not known if they would supply information if permission for their examination were sought and given.

Helen Markwood found that her great, great grandfather Peter Glick was a real estate agent. In looking through various records she came across a will, handwritten, handsewn with sewing thread. Her great uncle Isaac Schleich had written it for Daniel Glick, charging a $2 fee. It was signed 16 Feb 1823 and probated 15 March 1824. Comparison with 1918 and 1982 books showed discrepancies, mainly in the death date for Daniel Glick. It appears that G.H. Glick's 1918 dates and identical stories of Daniel AV and his brother Peter AVII in illness and death were confused. Lack of grave markers helped obscure information. Helen has ascertained which sections of land in Fairfield Co. (now in both Fairfield and in Pickaway Counties) are mentioned in the will, which sections others in the families owned etc.

Section 26, Pickaway Co. now has Slade Run Historical Farm operating as one would have 100 years ago. It is owned and operated by Columbus Metro Park System. They have a beautifully kept Recreational Park on part of Sections 27 and 25. These are located near Ohio 674 southwest of Lithopolis.

AV Daniel (1758-1824) included his wife Christina, sons Solomon and Daniel as executors, daughters Salome (Sarah) wife of Jacob Glick and Catherine wife of Jacob Brobst, son David not known of in 1918 and 1982 books, son Benjamin who received a larger share as he was charged with the care of his mother, and a grandson Joseph Glick in the will. All except Benjamin were living on or using the property willed to them. He was not yet of age. (correct his birthdate from 1798 to 1804 and d 1889 pg 48 1982 book). Helen Markwood substantiates this age in the 1850 census and his wife's name, Mary Crumley. She found that Benjamin married very shortly after his father's death. There was a female the right age to be Christina listed in son Daniel's home in 1830 Census. She was not there in 1820 census. This indicates that her death did not occur until after 1830. There is reference to a David Glick in an 1829 land transfer from David and Lydia Glick to Peter Glick, (the real estate dealer).

The grandson Joseph is the child of Daniel and Christina's deceased son, Frederick. He received land and $50 with interest from the date of his father's death in 1907 that Daniel had held for him. Cemetery records give Joseph's death as 20 March 1874 at age 73, thus establishing his birth as 1801. Cemetery records show that Joseph and Sally's daughter, Sarah, age 12, died 1835. Earlier reference to All Philip's son Philip and th half section of Section 30 Fairfield Co. was found by Helen, also. Frederick was possibly named for his father's brother.

The 1850 census has two Benjamin Glicks living in Bloom Twp.:

Benjamin Glick 46 yrs. (AV Daniel's son 1804-1889)	Benjamin Glick 50 yrs (AVII Peter's son 1800-1888)
Mary Crumley 44 yrs	Sarah Schlasser 50 yrs (2nd wife)
Richard 18	Lucas F (Frederick) 14
Rufus 15	Loretta (neice) 14 (dau. of Jacob Glick)
Monroe 11	Reuben 22
Clarissa 10	Susannah 19
Mathias 6	(Reuben's wife Susannah Woodring)
Mary Ann 1	(This Benjamin and both wives are buried in Glick Cem. pg 49 1982 book).
(pg 48 1982, corrections suggested)

Names and dates of the 1804 Benjamin do not strictly match those previously given in 1982 book.

On Oct 12, 1807 when Philip III's widow had guardians appointed for minor children, Peter AVII's widow had AV Daniel Glick and Daniel Woodring named guardians for her young children: Letitia 11 years, Judith 9, Benjamin 7, John 5, and Jacob (nearly 3 yrs).

This gives a list of children needing more missing data: Mary b ca 1788 m John Ritter; Philip; Sanilla Jude (is the Jude perhaps meant to be the younger Judith?) m Shook; Henry b 1790, m Polly ____; Lydia 1793 m Thomas Kurtz ( 1918 book says Peter's wife Barbara m a Kurtz, no evidence located for this. Could this be the point of confusion?); Letitia b 1796; Judith b 1798; Benjamin b 1800, details already given; John b 1803 d 1885 m Catherine Whitzel; Jacob 1804-1840 m Elizabeth Hoyman.
